

OPCC Victim Service Provider Workshop

Thursday 17th December 2015 [10am – 1pm, then lunch]

Cheshire Constabulary Tactical Training Centre (TTC), Winsford, Cheshire, CW7 2FW

Contact: Michael@researchmlr.co.uk or rainbow.langdale-smith@cheshire.pnn.police.uk

Aimed at voluntary and community sector (VCS) providers who have received Cheshire Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) victim service funds – to share understanding of sustainable funding and the associated need to effectively evidence service value to commissioners, as well as sharing lessons from service delivery in 2015.

9.45am – 10am: Arrival and registration
10.00: Introduction and welcome by Neil Ellwood/Rainbow Langdale-Smith, Cheshire OPCC.
10.05: Setting the Scene by Michael Lloyd, MLR.
10.15: Group work – via ‘Café Conversation’ , considering 3 questions on funding / income.
11.15am: Break.
11.30: Hate Crime Service Provider presentations – 10-15 min each, and questions.
12.30: Alternative perspectives – 2 presentations, by Warrington VA and RASASC.
12.55: Next steps and keeping in touch – Michael Lloyd / Rainbow Langdale-Smith
1pm: Network lunch

Travel instructions: see map below

Please note: Parking and registration is not at the Force Headquarters - it is at the Tactical Training Centre (TTC) which is located behind the Head Quarters building. Access to the TTC is via Barlow Drive, off Browning Way. From the A54 (Oakmere Rd) roundabout, take the Browning Way exit – and the first right off Browning Way is Barlow Drive. Once on Barlow Drive, continue past Rolls-Royce and the rear entrance to the force HQ on the right, to a mini roundabout. At roundabout turn right to TTC ('A' on map).

